Cabbie's £5 demand to aid disabled mum

BY SOPHIE SCOTT
sophie.scott@lutononsunday.co.uk

A DISABLED mother claims she was left in the cold and dark when a cab driver refused to put her wheelchair in his car unless she paid him an extra £5.

Wheelchair-user Carly Hammett, 32, booked 69ers, based in Bedford Square, Houghton Regis, to take her home after her college course at 9.30pm on Tuesday.

The mother-of-two said that when the driver of the saloon car arrived at Kingsland College, in Parkside Drive, he said he had a 'bad shoulder' and would not put her wheelchair into the back of the vehicle; but would do it if she gave him an extra £5.

Miss Hammett complained to Central Bedfordshire Council about the driver who has, in line with 69ers' company policy, been automatically suspended while a council investigation takes place.

The private hire firm said that its driver disputes that he asked for extra money - instead telling her to call a Hackney Carriage which has disabled access and might cost more.

In 2008 Miss Hammett was paralysed on the left side of her body after she had a brain aneurysm and a stroke, two days after giving birth to her youngest daughter Jessica.

She was in a coma for three weeks and stayed in Charing Cross Hospital, London for four months.

She has to use a wheelchair to get around and can only walk very short distances with the aid of a stick.

Miss Hammett, of Charles Way, Houghton Regis, said: "I was so angry. I use them all the time and they know what I need.

"This driver just kept saying 'I have a shoulder injury you will have to put it in'. I can't lift my chair can I?

"He then said to me if I gave him £5 he would do it but I wasn't having that and he drove off and left me. It wasn't until I phoned the office and told them did they send him back."

Helen Dolphin, a spokeswoman for campaigning charity Disabled Motoring UK, said: "I think that is outrageous. It sounds like he could have helped all along but just wanted the extra money. I am glad the company has taken action though."

Central Bedfordshire Council's conditions for Hackney Carriage and private hire drivers firmly states: 'No driver may refuse to assist a passenger in a wheelchair unless the driver can produce a medical certificate signed by a registered medical practitioner to the effect that the driver's physical condition makes it impossible or unreasonably difficult for him or her to comply with these duties and a certificate of exemption has been issued by the council.

'No additional charge shall be made for assisting a passenger in a wheelchair.'

Waseem Ahmed, manager of 69ers, said: "This is not acceptable behaviour from a driver and as soon as a complaint was made the driver was suspended, in line with our policy.

"We take complaints very seriously. We are assisting the council with its inquiries."

A Central Bedfordshire spokeswoman said: "We take all complaints very seriously and we are actively investigating the incident.

"Conditions for drivers clearly state that they shall make no additional charge for assisting a passenger in a wheelchair."

Tax talks prompt coronary fear quip

THE deputy leader of the council was warned to calm down before he had a heart attack at a stormy meeting to discuss the hike in council tax.

On Thursday evening Labour Cllr Robin Harris, who is portfolio holder for finance at Luton Borough Council, was defending the decision to put up the tax by 3.44 per cent - just below the 3.5 per cent Government-set threshold that would trigger a town-wide referendum.

The move has angered opposition Conservative and Liberal Democrat councillors, who were exchanged in a tempestuous debate at the Town Hall.

Cllr Michael Garrett, leader of the Conservative group, shouted out that if Cllr Harris continued as he was he would give himself a heart attack – a comment which sparked much amusement in the chamber.

Cllr Harris retorted: "I am perfectly healthy, my blood pressure is very good.

"I am pleased he is concerned about me."

Opposition concerns ignored as authority pushes through tax hike

RESIDENTS in Luton will pay an extra 3.44 per cent in council tax this year as councillors pushed through the controversial rise at a heated Town Hall meeting.

Portfolio holder for finance Cllr Robin Harris came under intense questioning from opposition members who believed Luton Borough Council should freeze the tax so they would be entitled to a £1.6 million Government grant.

Instead Labour councillors voted to increase it which would bring in £2.2 million as it will 'protect essential services'.

Now those living in a Band D property in the town will pay £39 more a year.

Cllr Robin Harris

Cllr Robin Harris, who presented the budget to the council, said: "We are fighting to protect services for the most vulnerable in the community but given the severity of the cuts we are left with no choice."

Cllr Michael Garrett, leader of the Conservatives, challenged him about setting the council tax just below the 3.5 per cent limit for a referendum, saying: "Does he not agree that the people of this town would say no to the council tax?"

Cllr Harris replied: "We had the ultimate referendum when we (Labour) got returned with 36 councillors last year. I notice there are less councillors on his bench."

Councillors vote to freeze rates despite savings target of £11m

RESIDENTS in Central Bedfordshire will not have to foot the bill for an increase in council tax after an authority decided to freeze its rates for the coming financial year.

Councillors voted in favour of a council tax freeze in the region and vowed to merge the difference in rates between north and south Bedfordshire over the next two years when they approved the budget at a meeting of Central Bedfordshire Council on Thursday.

The proposals also aim to pour more funding into improving roads, transport and protecting library services.

Addressing the full council, deputy leader Maurice Jones claimed that the authority needed to find £11 million in savings during the coming year which would be achieved through 'making efficiencies', a statement which opposition councillors argued was an attempt to disguise significant cuts to front-line services.

A number of Liberal Democrat and Independent councillors voted against the budget proposals with Cllr Rita Egan calling adult social care a 'fiscal time bomb' and Cllr Julian Murray claiming the proposals only mean 'cuts, cuts and more cuts'.

Concerns were also raised about changes to the telecare service and the 7.94 per cent rise in rent for tenants of council housing, meaning residents will have to pay out an extra £7 each week.

Calls for MPs to cut ties with Christian charity

BY KEELEY KNOWLES
editor@lutononsunday.co.uk

A PETITION is calling for two Beds MPs to disassociate themselves from a Christian charity which co-sponsored a 'gay cure' conference.

Both Andrew Selous, who represents South West Bedfordshire, and Alistair Burt, MP for North East Bedfordshire have previously received intern students from the Christian Action Research and Education (CARE) organisation as part of a scheme to help graduates get experience in Parliament.

But this support - Mr Burt's last intern was between September 2009 and July 2010 at a value of £5,000 - has been questioned by campaigner Phillip Dawson who has launched a petition.

Mr Dawson is urging the MPs along with 15 others to publicly pledge not to accept any more support from the charity which in 2009 co-sponsored a 'gay cure' conference in London which sparked protests.

The 33-year-old from Enfield said: "I am in no way suggesting that these MPs endorse or condone the views of CARE or its co-sponsorship of a 'gay cure' event. However, I hope they will see this petition and make a public statement."

However it seems the two MPs are not willing to do this.

Mr Selous, who last had an intern from the charity from September 2010 to July 2011, said he was 'very proud' of his association with the group of which he has been a member for around 25 years.

He added: "Bedfordshire residents will have benefited hugely by the support given to Alistair and me and I'm very unapologetic about my association with CARE."

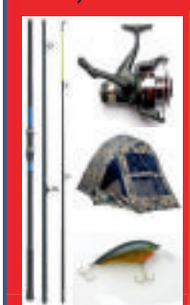

When asked about the conference Mr Selous said it was a 'free country' adding: "I have met people who have been homosexual who are no longer. I am wholly against any form of discrimination."

He praised the work of CARE in areas such as human trafficking, schools and people living in poverty and said he was looking forward to having another intern from them.

Eve Burt, Alistair's wife and assistant - both are Christian - said she didn't think he would be making that statement adding that while she didn't particularly agree with the conference news of it probably wouldn't have changed them having the intern because they had already sorted it.

The conference sponsored by CARE and Anglican Mainstream was billed as a Judaeo-Christian conference for all and was entitled 'Redeeming sex today' ideal for 'clergy, rabbis, psychologists, therapists, educators and others concerned about the plethora of sexual issues'.

Headteachers at two schools set to move on

TWO headteachers are to leave their posts.

Luton on Sunday has been reliably informed by a Central Bedfordshire Council source that Nigel King, currently headteacher at Queensbury Upper School, and Kings Houghton Middle School counterpart Mary-Jo Gill have both reached 'compromise agreements' with their governing bodies.

In November Queensbury Upper School in Langdale Drive, Dunstable, was put in 'special measures' and last month announced it was looking to become an academy.

In its report Ofsted said of Queensbury: 'Students' behaviour interrupts learning in too many lessons. Teachers do not use the agreed behaviour management procedures consistently enough.

'The quality of teaching is too variable across a range of subjects. Too much is inadequate and not enough is good.'

While Kings Houghton Middle, in Parkside Drive, Houghton Regis, is not in special measures it was deemed 'satisfactory' by Ofsted in its report published in September 2011.

The council source, who we agreed not to name, said: "Both headteachers are departing and the local education authority is fully supportive of the decision taken by the governing bodies."

A Central Bedfordshire Council spokeswoman said: "The council isn't able to comment on the personal position of employees. In the case of both schools this is a matter for the school governors supported by advice from the council as appropriate. We have no further comment to offer at this time."

LoS made efforts to get in touch with governors at both schools but they did not return our phone calls before our deadline.

Court hears of mum's 999 call in murder trial

BY JULIA SUTTON
editor@lutononsunday.co.uk

THE mother of a woman allegedly murdered made a 999 call to police saying: 'He has knifed her - he's trying to break into the house', a court heard.

Patricia Bagnall screamed down the phone to the operator after her daughter, Tracy Anstice, of Carlisle Court, Dunstable, was allegedly stabbed through the heart by her husband Lee Anstice.

Beverley Cripps, at Luton Crown Court, prosecuting, said the wife was trapped on her parents' driveway in Flitwick between parked cars and her screams alerted her Patricia and Roger Bagnall, who were inside the house.

The father rushed out to be confronted by his son-in-law pointing the knife at him shouting: "Do you want some of this?"

He then plunged the knife into his estranged wife's body a number of times and one blow pierced her heart, the court heard.

The court was told the father managed to drag his dying daughter into his home, which was when the 999 call was made to police, in which Mrs Bagnall said: "He has knifed her, he is trying to break into the house. Quick please get an ambulance for my daughter, quickly."

Mr Anstice, 50, drove off but a short while later sent her a text in which he referred to their daughter and her boyfriend saying: "Are you taking her back for happy families? Not now."

Tracy Anstice

Police were able to arrest Mr Anstice in Harlington Road, in the village of Westoning, after his car was spotted.

On being cautioned he allegedly said to officers: "Is she dead?"

When interviewed he said he had been hearing voices over the last few days. Mr Anstice said that, after making the call to his wife and watching her arrive at her parents' home, a voice told him: "You have just got to hurt her, make her feel some of the pain you have felt."

Civil servant Mr Anstice pleads not guilty to murdering his wife on August 26 last year.

Outlining the Crown Prosecution Service's case to the jury, Miss Cripps said: "He refused to accept the relationship was over and her wishes that it should end."

Miss Cripps described Mr Anstice as 'jealous and controlling' and said Tracy had formed a relationship with Glen Feasey after meeting him through her daughter's swimming club.

The jury heard that Mr Feasey had first met Tracy, a mental health unit worker, during 2010 at after school activities for their children.

They became friendly and, in March of 2011, Mr Feasey's own marriage ended when he left his wife Claire and their children and went to live with his parents in Milton Keynes.

He eventually moved into a flat in Flitwick.

The court heard Mr Anstice was visited by Mr Feasey's wife who told him her husband and Tracy were having an affair.

Case proceeding.

Public outcry over rapists' sentences

BY LUI STRACCIA
lui.straccia@lutononsunday.co.uk

THOUSANDS were outraged by Luton on Sunday's story of the 40-month jail terms given to the rapists of an 11-year-old girl by a judge who said she was a 'willing participant'.

Our front page last week on the two men, who raped their victim in the stairwell of a block of flats off Park Street, Luton, went national and prompted readers to flood the country's top law officer with complaints that he review the jail terms as 'unduly lenient'.

Ruben Monteiro, of Bailey Street, Luton, and Roshane Channer, of no fixed abode, both 21, pleaded guilty to raping the girl last July and Judge David Farrell QC said: "Despite her age it is accepted she was a willing participant, but the law is there to protect young girls from this type of behaviour and to protect them from themselves.

"The girl had clearly been subjected to systematic sexual exploitation and you willingly used her for your own sexual gratification.

"It is aggravated by the fact that the event was being videoed."

He added there was evidence that the footage had been circulated, as it was found on one of the defendants' phones.

The men had maintained they believed the girl was at least 14, and, after viewing evidence, the judge agreed she appeared that age.

A number of infuriated visitors to LoS's website posted messages of shock, including Yvonne who said: 'Reading this case makes me feel physically sick. . .what the two evil men did was bad enough, but to have a judge say she was 'willing' is frightening - once again the victim is left without any consideration from the courts'.

Child rape sentences blasted as 'worst ever'

Winnie branded the sentencings and judge's comments 'disgusting' and said 'an investigation is called for', while childhood sexual support manager Linda Lewis wrote: 'Having read this article it left me feeling revolted and despondent.

'This article is particularly alarming as it demonstrates how a senior member of the justice system encourages the continuation of these myths by sending out clear messages through his sentencings for society to continue stoking the fires of ignorance. Shameful.'

The 40-month jail terms flew in the face of sentencing guidelines for rapists of under-13s which range from between eight and 13 years.

A spokeswoman for the Attorney General (AG) said: "I can confirm we will review the case and decide whether to appeal the sentences as possibly unduly lenient by March 9."

After his review the AG may send the case to the Court of Appeal which can replace the sentences.

The NSPCC, which complained to the AG over the sentencings, thanked LoS 'for bringing this extremely important case to the public's attention'.

Chief executive Andrew Flanagan said: "It's certainly not credible to accept a defence that the rapists thought the girl was 14 when she was 11. We have no doubt the sentences should be much heavier than the 40 months which have been imposed."

Jodie Blackstock, criminal director at campaign group Justice, said: "Irrespective of its outcome, this case could raise a need for not just judges, but all practitioners, dealing with young rape victims to be more sensitive about the culture of gang rape and the circumstances in which young people find themselves."

Lord role an 'honour' for Helen

A NEW HM Lord Lieutenant of Bedfordshire has been appointed.

Helen Nellis took up the appointment on Wednesday and succeeds Sir Samuel Whitbread who held the position for more than 20 years.

She said: "It will be an honour for me to serve Bedfordshire in my new role. I would also like to pay tribute to the outstanding service of Sir Samuel Whitbread who has fulfilled the role of Lord Lieutenant with distinction and integrity and I wish him and Lady Whitbread good health and happiness on his retirement."

£1m street scene revamp

AROUND £1 million of funding will be given towards a project to regenerate Dunstable town centre.

The money will be spent on a scheme by Central Bedfordshire Council and highways provider Amey to deliver a 'street scene' in Court Drive.

The will work start after Easter and is due to be completed in the summer.

It will be done in several phases and a public exhibition of the designs will be held late next month.

Fire service drops Luton from name

BY LUI STRACCIA
lui.straccia@lutononsunday.co.uk

THE word Luton is being dropped from the county fire brigade's official name.

Bedfordshire and Luton Fire and Rescue Service will become just Bedfordshire Fire and Rescue Service after councillors voted for the switch at a meeting on Wednesday.

The alteration will have no bearing on fire coverage in Luton and comes following the change in the county's council make-up over the past three years.

The current brigade title was born in April 1997 following the creation of a separate unitary authority of Luton.

In April 2009 unitary authority Central Bedfordshire Council was created from the merger of Bedfordshire County Council, Mid Bedfordshire and South Bedfordshire.

Now councillors on the brigade's watchdog, the Combined Fire Authority, have decided to go for the name change at a projected cost of around £3,000 to replace things such as signs, logos and websites – and even possibly the official crest. The move comes after Luton on Sunday revealed in December that the fire service wants to swap shirt colours from red to either white or blue to generate an extra £31,000.

Nationally there is no standard shirt colour for fire brigades and Bedfordshire is the only one to have red. Councillors have also voted to change the Combined Fire Authority's name to Bedfordshire Fire and Rescue Authority but, unlike the service's name, this needs to be approved by the Secretary of State.

Brigade Chief Fire Officer Paul Fuller said: "The fire authority has expressed a view that both the name of the fire service and that of the authority should be changed.

"The latter will require ministerial approval and the associated consultation with the authorities concerned.

"More importantly, everyone in Bedfordshire will continue to receive the same excellent standard of prevention and protection, and response to emergencies, from their fire and rescue Service, wherever they live."

Hunt for van after horse and cart driver injured

THE driver of a horse and cart may have suffered 'life-changing' injuries after being thrown from the carriage which was overtaken by a van.

The cart was being ridden towards the A1081 on Newlands Road, Luton, at about 1pm on Thursday when the van overtook it and the 40-year-old rider lost control. She was taken to hospital for treatment to broken vertebrae and a broken ankle along with the 19-year-old passenger.

The white van driver left the scene without stopping and the officer in charge of this investigation, PC Mark West, has asked that anyone with information about the driver calls the police on 101.

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Billy Harley feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 5 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service the Luton, Dunstable and Stevenage areas and Billy is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Billy a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

The man who helped to catch £2.2m fraudsters

BY LUI STRACCIA
lui.straccia@lutononsunday.co.uk

MORE than 200 fraudsters have stolen over £2.2 million from taxpayers in the past five years - and this is the man who caught them.

Paul Taylor (pictured) leads four investigators at Luton Borough Council's Revenue and Benefits department, which saves taxpayers more than £500,000 a year in prevented illegal claims.

Since 2007, Mr Taylor's audit and investigations team have sent 13 fraudsters to jail, cautioned 62, fined nearly 100 and recouped more than £1 million in stolen benefits.

Barely a week goes by when the latest benefits cheat is named and shamed in the media, marking the end of yet another successful prosecution.

In an exclusive interview with Luton on Sunday, Mr Taylor said: "We thank LoS because other departments are insanely jealous of the publicity we get.

"People take notice of what we do - we are out there catching criminals. It is good quality investigation work and it's mostly done in-house.

"Some people don't come to the Town Hall to be interviewed, so sometimes we go out with the police to arrest them.

"Whether they like it or not, we'll come knocking on their door. And if you get a conviction for benefit fraud from the council, it goes on the Police National Computer and it goes on your criminal record."

Mr Taylor revealed that a lot of the sources which spark off many of their investigations are members of the public - particularly after LoS has published a story based on a benefits fraudster who has been caught.

He added: "We get information from all sorts of sources. The council's benefits team will spot stuff, we do data matching with other departments, we work with other agencies, sometimes we get things posted in and sometimes we generate our own inquiries.

"What's important is that everyone has a part to play in this. The community doesn't like benefit fraudsters. People can make a difference.

"If you suspect fraud, tell us about it - but tell us with details. This means we can act more quickly. We people ring up, capture as much information as possible.

For advice on benefits call 0300 790 0345, and for council tax call 0300 790 0340.

Arsonists burn a hole in fire crews' time

FIREFIGHTERS spent a quarter of their time putting out blazes which were started deliberately.

New figures, released through a Freedom of Information Act request, show that in the last three financial years 6,788 hours - or 283 days - were taken up at the scenes of fires. A further 1,648.5 hours were spent investigating each fire, at an average of 30 minutes each.

Bedfordshire and Luton Fire and Rescue Service was called to 3,297 fires which turned out to have been started on purpose since 2009.

This year 972 fires were deliberate.

A BLFRS spokesman said: "All deliberate fires place lives at risk - either directly, at the scene of the fire, or indirectly because they tie up resources that would otherwise be available to respond to other emergencies, where people's safety was under threat. We work closely with the police to investigate deliberate fires, and support them and the CPS with any prosecutions."

Drugs aren't an option

SIR - Ron Turvey (Luton on Sunday - January 29 - Letters) advocates legalisation of drugs, but wouldn't that increase consumption?

Low prices sell more product. Take the legal drug alcohol. Britain has overtaken France in cirrhosis of the liver.

Witness our vomit spattered streets and over-worked A&E.

Richard Branson is a Beckley Foundation commissioner, one of several organisations including Open Society and Senlis Council working to decriminalise opium products.

All are heavily funded by billionaire international speculator George Soros.

In 1979, Keith Stroup of NORML, a Soros backed organisation, said at Emory University that they will use the term 'medical marijuana' as a red herring to give pot a good name - a first step toward full legalisation.

The 'War on Drugs' will fail until the banks' complicity in money laundering is tackled.

Soros had a hand in Colombian and related drug banking from 1994, employing his vast offshore funds to support the Cali cocaine cartel and its allies against a determined US Government effort to shut them down.

Soros shorted the pound sterling in 1992 - many lost their homes as the interest rate sky-rocketed. Soros was convicted of insider trading and fined $2.9m in France and $2.2m in Hungary. He openly admits he helped engineer coups in Slovakia, Georgia, Croatia and Yugoslavia.

The PM of Malaysia called Soros a 'villain and a moron.

We regard Soros as a kind of Dracula. He sucks the blood from people'.

Opium legalisation would turn Afghanistan into a fully fledged narco-state as 'leaked' opium would generate fortunes capable of corrupting individuals in power.

Opium legalisation would wreck Afghanistan's chances of ever becoming a modern agro-industrial state. Our troops would continue to die there.

Sufferers should receive medical drugs having the same effect attributed to marijuana.

Marijuana opens the door to society being controlled by international organised crime.

Lots for Kelvin to do in his constituency

SIR - It was amazing to find that the local MP for Luton North (Kelvin Hopkins) has been canvassing in Dunstable.

It does seem a little premature since the boundary commission will not be giving its final recommendation for another 18 months.

Mr Hopkins is spending Sunday mornings knocking on doors in Dunstable.

In normal times, he spent his time attending to his constituents' problems rather than trying to promote himself elsewhere.

It is as if there are not enough issues in Luton for him to pay attention to.

I am sure the residents of Luton North hope he will now promote more of his time to his own present constituents.

HOPKINS CALLING: MP Kelvin canvassing in Dunstable

Tories party for funds

SIR - A sell-out crowd attended Luton Conservative Association's Annual Burns Dinner at the Cross Keys pub in Pulloxhill at the beginning of this month.

More than 40 supporters and friends came along for a four course meal interspersed with readings and live music from Alastair Stewart, Bedfordshire's finest professional piper, followed by a raffle and auction. This is the first of a full schedule of social/fundraising events due to take place this year, as local Conservatives aim to put together a network of supporters backed by sufficient funds in their bid to retake Luton Borough Council from the Labour party.

VAT cut is not the answer

SIR - In the run-up to the Budget Ed Balls has suggested boosting the economy by reducing VAT temporarily. He is fundamentally wrong on two counts.

Firstly the quickest and most cost effective way to reduce household debt, which is rising to horrific levels, is to raise income tax thresholds boosting the disposable pay of the population with more than a VAT reduction.

This would benefit the lowest paid in society.

Secondly it would tackle one of the worst aspects of the UK under Labour last time - working people in low paid jobs were in a benefits tax trap where added work hours or promotion were penalised by reduction in an over complex benefit system.

Lastly, variations in VAT add a burden on private companies repricing and having to readjust budgets for VAT variations.

Ed Balls' second line of argument is to ask for more tax credits. The complexity of tax credits would soak up more money in administration.

It would be slower to feed the money back into the economy and again penalise those people who do not want to have their lives tied in knots by the benefits dependency culture.

Labour is campaigning against cuts to police budgets and other public sector reductions. However if additional money is to be found there is no suggestion the cuts would be reversed or mitigated

Clearly the shallow and often knee jerk statements of Labour's spokesman on key issues shows they have learnt nothing from the financial mess they left the country in and have little coherent strategy to promote to the country.

Take up a scholarship

SIR - The Institution of Engineering & Technology (IET) has issued a call for entries for its postgraduate scholarships, part of the IET Ambition Awards.

They include a range of scholarships between £2,500 and £10,000 for outstanding postgraduate students from within the engineering and technology sectors.

This year's IET Ambition Awards are sponsored by GCHQ, RS Components and Transport for London.

Current and prospective postgraduate students studying on engineering or IT programmes only have until 5pm on March 28 to apply for a postgraduate scholarship. Scholarships range from £2,500 to £10,000.

Postgraduate students produce some really ground-breaking research in the engineering and technology industries, and the IET is committed to supporting these outstanding young prospects.

As part of the IET Ambition Awards, these scholarships are designed to help ensure the continual flow of postgraduate talent into the sector by helping to finance their studies so that they can realise their ambitions.

In 2011 the IET provided more than £500,000 in awards, prizes and scholarships, to promote excellence and research in the sector, endorse women entering the profession and encourage the next generation of engineers and technicians.

Schoolgirl sexually assaulted in alley

lui.straccia@lutononsunday.co.uk

A FIFTEEN-year-old was sexually assaulted on her way to school.

The teenager suffered the attack while she walked along the alleyway between Norfolk Road and Manshead Close, Dunstable, on Friday.

At around 8.15am, she was approached by a man who tried to strike up a conversation and asked if he could meet her later that day.

When she refused, he touched her before he walked away and the victim ran to school to raise the alarm. Police appealing for witnesses said the man is described as white, in his early 20s, of medium height and build, and was wearing a grey hooded top, black jogging bottoms and a pair of 'tatty' white trainers.

If you have information relating to this incident contact DC Lucy Fountain, in confidence, on 01582 473368 or Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

Updated adoption rules are welcomed

NEW adoption guidelines have been 'embraced' - bringing 'great news for children'.

Central Bedfordshire Council has responded to Government calls to ensure the adoption process is quickened.

Cllr Mark Versallion said: "The new guidelines are great news for children who are waiting to be part of a new loving family and for those looking to adopt.

"The new six month timescale is achievable as we in Central Beds know.

"Our adoption service is among the best in the country for recruiting adopters and placing children and is noted for its innovation."

Consultation to start on pupils' age

FORMAL consultation is to begin on proposals to extend the age range of four Houghton Regis lower schools.

The move comes in Central Bedfordshire Council's bid to improve education standards for three to 11 year olds.

Hawthorn Park, Thornhill and Tithe Farm and Thomas Whitehead lower schools could see changes take effect from September 2013, at which time Year 4 pupils could remain at their current school for two more years or transfer to a middle school.

A final decision on the potential changes will be made in April.

The airport expansion exhibition at Dunstable Leisure Centre

Airport's expansion bid unites residents

BY LUI STRACCIA
lui.straccia@lutononsunday.co.uk

A NEW protest group has sprung up in opposition to plans to expand Luton Airport.

Residents of Hertfordshire living underneath flightpaths have formed Hertfordshire Against Luton Expansion (HALE) to campaign against proposals to increase passenger numbers to 18 million a year.

Luton Borough Council, which owns the airport, is currently undertaking a public consultation, with seven of the 13 events taking place in Hertfordshire.

But that is still not enough for HALE, which says the council is 'pocketing cash' while its neighbouring county suffers 'more noise, more air pollution and more congestion on their roads and railways'.

The group said it aims to stop the plans and reduce 'noisy flights' over rural areas. Nigel Emms, who founded the group which had its first meeting in Flamstead on Thursday evening, said: "Night flights are a particular problem and the airport operators admit that planes are over-flying villages rather than following the correct track, and they have not been able to resolve the issue.

"As a result, people are regularly awoken at 2.30 in the morning."

Steve Heappey, lead officer of London Luton Airport Ltd which owns the airport, said: "We want to hear from everyone who would be affected by the proposals and we're holding events around the airport's region.

"People can get in touch with us by post, by phone, by email, online or by attending one of our exhibitions."

More information is available at www.futureluton.co.uk. HALE has launched a website at www.hale.uk.net

We're loving festival line-up

THREE more artists have been announced to support The Wanted at the Love Luton 2012 Festival.

Up-and-coming boy band Lawson, soca superstar SW Storm and former X Factor contestant Bradley Johnson will all be appearing on the same evening as the pop band at Popes Meadow on July 6.

The Love Luton 2012 Festival from July 6-9 will be packed with a range of activities as well as the special Olympic Torch celebration event on July 8.

Tickets for the July 6 and 7 performances are on sale now at www.luton.gov.uk/2012festival

Bookies have put Luton's chance of becoming a city at 16/1 - behind favourites Reading at 10/11.

A decision is expected in the next couple of weeks as to which town will be granted the honour in celebration of the Queen's Diamond Jubilee.

Possible courts merger on the cards to tackle town's crime rise

TWO magistrates' courts could merge because there is more crime in Luton's part of the county than Bedford's.

The Ministry of Justice (MoJ) is carrying out a consultation until April which would see Bedford Magistrates' Court and Luton Magistrates' Court (pictured) combine to create 'The Bedfordshire Bench'.

In a 24-page document handed to groups affected by the proposed changes which includes MPs, councils and judges, it says that the number of cases being dealt with at Bedford has dropped by 3,300 since 2008.

Luton has increased by more than 3,000 since that time with county-wide crime falling from 60,000 in 2003 to 43,000 in 2011.

Central Bedfordshire Cllr Richard Stay said: "I read with great interest the stark contrast between the dramatic reduction in the overall number of crimes committed in Bedfordshire from more than 60,000 in 2003 to 43,000 in 2011, which is of course very welcome news, but it masks a steady rise in crime in Luton - this demonstrates where we have succeeded and where we need to focus on fighting crime."

An MoJ spokeswoman said: "There is currently insufficient magistrates' court work in the Bedford and Mid Bedfordshire Local Justice Area to sustain the bench.

"This proposed merger will provide greater flexibility to ensure that magistrates undertake a sufficient range of sittings and are able to sit where they are most needed to manage the workload."

Remember how we were saved in War of the Worlds

POLIO is on the way out. At least that is what doctors and scientists are saying. Everyone my age will have known people with polio, a highly infectious viral disease which affects the central nervous system.

I knew someone at school with it, and also an engineering designer, when I worked at a company that made narrow gauge diesel locomotives, called Simplex. The disease left them paralysed in the legs, although they could sometimes walk with difficulty, using callipers.

Famous polio sufferers included USA president FD Roosevelt and musician Ian Dury.

Most cases cause no symptoms but in around one in 200 infections it leads to irreversible paralysis, usually in the legs.

India was once the epicentre of the disease with more than 150,000 new cases recorded as recently as 1985. Since January 2011 there has not been a single case. Now there is a real chance that the disease could be completely eliminated, which has to be a very good thing.

This does mean, however, that the virus would cease to exist, as it cannot survive outside its host. This leads me to wondering about life-forms on the planet. Have we a duty to save them all, or just the cuddly ones? Should we just rejoice when an unpleasant virus is destroyed forever or lament the loss of another species? The answer may be obvious when the polio virus is compared to a panda but there is still a principle involved and still people taking those decisions. For example, small pox was eradicated in 1979. Yet it is rumoured that small phials of it are kept in the USA and Russia, just in case. Just in case of what, no-one is certain.

I would happily see the back of slugs and snails but have been told they are an important part of the food chain. Tell that to the present Mrs Lowe, when she sees her hostas devoured. And what use are house flies?

I remember a furore in the 1970s over the fact that certain types of tuna fishing nets were also entrapping and killing dolphins. After the almighty fuss, the guilty nets were banned and a friend of mine had a t-shirt made with the legend: 'What about the poor bloody tuna?'

Obviously tuna are closer to a virus than a panda.

I cannot see people standing outside hospitals with placards demanding that polio be saved and given its own habitat but let us not forget that, in the War of the Worlds, humanity was saved - by a virus.

FAMILIAR sounding sabre-rattling can be heard from the neo-conservatives against Iran. With the ending of the Iraq war after eight years, the Afghanistan conflict going nowhere, a new war is needed to progress American domination and give its military and business friends new carcasses to feed on. Iran would also settle an old score, after the revolution in 1979 kicked them and their allies out.

The excuse for this latest bout of war-mongering is that Iran is creating nuclear weapons, which cannot be tolerated in the Middle East. Does this remind anyone of weapons of mass destruction?

Where were they? Oh, yes in politicians' imaginings. The irony is that Israel may strike on the West's behalf. So the one country in the Middle East that has nuclear weapons and has been subject to more UN resolutions, and has defied more UN resolutions, than any other country in the world, could strike against Iran to stop it building nuclear weapons and ensuring it obeys international law. You could not make this stuff up.

I smell a big rat, with another war against terror/radical muslims/anti-market forces on the cards. Which will mean spending the money we don't have and the lives we should not sacrifice to satisfy the ego of the USA and fill the coffers of its business friends.

New role for Prof Les

A BUST-UP that divided the Coalition Government has cast the spotlight over the University of Bedfordshire.
With its vice-chancellor at the centre of the row, the institution has been thrust into focus and questions have been asked about the quality of its courses. ADAM THOMPSON finds out more

WHILE it may be fairly small compared to other universities, Bedfordshire certainly makes up for it in column inches.

Many of its students may be blissfully unaware that it's been at the heart of a row between two senior Government figures.

And at the centre of the bust-up over whether its Vice Chancellor Les Ebdon was to be given a key role - before his appointment was confirmed earlier this week - was the university's so-called 'Mickey Mouse' courses.

Prof Ebdon's support of such degrees had ignited the debate over whether he should become director of the UK's Office for Fair Access.

It doesn't take long to find some of the more unorthodox subjects – or as the Vice Chancellor would say, 'innovative' ones.

The university offers degrees in Carnival Arts, Make-up and Diabetes. If you don't fancy that how about learning the Science of Dance or Life Long Learning (which ironically lasts one year) or better yet Football Studies?

Earlier this month the university chief's proposed appointment was the cause of fierce objection from Prime Minister David Cameron and Michael Gove – Secretary of State of Schools.

Backing Professor Ebdon's appointment, was Lib-Dem and Business Secretary Vince Cable. But on Monday the Government made a U-turn and announced it would offer him the job - which he has accepted.

The Tories' objection stemmed back to an article Prof Ebdon wrote in the Guardian newspaper in 2008 where he backed universities teaching apparent 'Mickey Mouse' subjects, calling on ministers to capitalise on 'innovative' courses.

He wrote: "The time could not be more opportune for ministers to capitalise on the rich and rewarding innovation that has been the hallmark of the UK's creative universities and industries."

Those looking to secure a place at the University of Bedfordshire will be paying as much as £9,000 in tuition fees (the same as Oxford and Cambridge) and with Prof Ebdon keen to encourage a gateway for students from less well-off backgrounds into advanced learning, the £9,000 figure is less a welcome sign and more 'No Entry' into private education. Prof Ebdon's tune has

MAN IN THE MIDDLE: Professor Les Ebdon

Housing choices for the over 55s

Modern living to support active lifestyles

Luton Borough Council runs a number of sheltered housing schemes to support over 55s to live independently in their own homes while living full and active lives.

The schemes have a variety of facilities including community gardens, lounges and leisure amenities which all provide a great social environment for making new friends. All schemes are fitted with modern security.

The schemes also offer the option of added support such as emergency alarms, if you choose.

Don't be fooled by what you may have heard - sheltered housing is an opportunity for an exciting and fresh start in life.

Luton Borough Council and Age Concern Luton are holding a sheltered housing information session where you can drop in to find out more:

Monday 27 February, 9am – 5:30pm
Melson Square, The Mall (near Mothercare)

not been to everyone's liking however. In his quest to become the UK's head of the Office for Fair Access, the education chief had stated he would be going 'nuclear' on universities as he aims to increase admissions from working-class backgrounds.

He has also said he would be prepared to ban universities that miss their admissions targets from charging the maximum £9k-a-year. Either way his own people have always thrown their full support behind him.

In a letter to David Cameron the former chairman of the university Andrew Bentley said: "I have worked alongside Prof Les Ebdon over the last six years.

"Every aspect of the university's performance under his tenure has been nothing less than stellar and it is a truly transformed institution. The university has won a multitude of awards for excellence, notably being the first runner-up in the Times Higher University of the Year in 2007, among numerous other awards.

"The university is also, now, one of the best financially performing universities in the UK.

"I, along with the other governors and board members, am immensely proud of the university and Prof Ebdon."

Was this the letter that swung it? Regardless, Mr Cameron has accepted he was powerless to stop Mr Cable from bringing his university tsar in.

It will not be easy for Prof Ebdon in his new role.

Earlier this month Brian Binley, the Tory deputy chairman of the Commons committee, said: "I am a little concerned about the things that the Prime Minister can't do. My guess is that so are a number of people in the party."

He added: "Prof Ebdon is not the best man for the job.

"They ought to spread their net wider and not go for a patsy from the university sector but somebody from outside who can bring a wider view to the job."

It's clear Prof Ebdon has the full backing of people in his camp but with such hostile objection to his appointment before he had even spent a single day in the post, the university chief's first battle may have to be winning over his vocal doubters.

17 people caught in immigration swoop

BY LUI STRACCIA
lui.straccia@lutononsunday.co.uk

SEVENTEEN immigration offenders have been arrested this month.

In the most recent operation on Monday, UK Border Agency officers raided a house in Millfield Road, Luton, shortly before 7am.

Checks revealed that seven Pakistani men inside the property had all overstayed their visit visas.

Four of them – aged 58, 52, 46 and 39 – were taken into detention, while three – aged 69, 59 and 46 – were granted immigration bail.

Prior to that, on February 13, officers visited two homes and made six arrests.

An Afghan man, aged 20, living in Hazelbury Crescent was identified as a failed asylum seeker. He was arrested at 6.25am and detained. At 8.25am officers raided an address in Newark Road, where five Pakistani men were arrested. All had overstayed their visas.

Three of the men – aged 45, 44, and 27 – were detained. Two – aged 71 and 44 – were released on immigration bail.

On February 7, officers raided Smokers' Paradise, in George Street, and arrested two illegals from India who were detained.

One, aged 21, had made a fraudulent application to extend his student visa and was removed from the UK on February 18.

The other, aged 20, had entered the UK illegally and remains in detention pending his removal from the country.

Smokers' Paradise faces a fine of up to £20,000 - £10,000 per illegal worker – unless it can prove that pre-employment checks were carried out. And on February 5, officers arrested two immigration offenders at separate private addresses.

At Crawley Road, a 23-year-old Pakistani man who had entered the UK illegally, was arrested. He was removed from the country on February 14.

At Union Street, a 26-year-old Indian man who had overstayed his visa was arrested. He was returned to India on February 13.

UK Border Agency officer Melanie Partridge said: "We carry out regular raids in Luton – these were particularly productive.

"Three of the arrested men have already been removed from the UK and we are working towards the same goal for the remainder."

Anyone who has information on suspected illegal immigrants can visit www.ukba.homeoffice.gov.uk/aboutus/contact/report-crime

Stuart of the Dead's all made up

THE make-up artist from smash hit film Shaun of the Dead gave students tips on how to make injuries look as gruesome as possible.

Stuart Bray, who played a crucial role in making the zombies from the 2004 British comedy look so grotesque, helped Media Performance students at the University of Bedfordshire learn how to recreate horrific wounds for stage and screen (pictured left).

Prosthetic make-up expert Stuart, who has worked on other big films including Stardust, said: "I love what I do, and I love showing other people how they can do it too."

Fragrant duo sniff Retail Factor glory

IF you are looking for a personalised gift with a difference, or have dreamt of having your own fragrance, then this year's Luton on Sunday backed Retail Factor may just have what you're after.

'Bluebox Bedfordshire', an at-home party venture which has been championed by two businesswomen from the county, is bringing its personalised fragrances concept to the high street.

No longer are personalised perfumes for the rich and famous, with Bluebox Bedfordshire, Luton shoppers will be able to create their own fragrance at an average retail price of £36.

The women who own the business are Caron Brooks and Nicole Eaton (pictured).

Caron picked up an entry form for The Retail Factor 2012 while shopping in The Mall and thought it would be great exposure for the unique personalised fragrance business - an experience that they hope will generate new business for the entrepreneurial consultants.

Nicole said: "Bluebox has never been on the high street before, we are very much looking forward to bringing something a bit different to the Mall Luton shoppers.

"Customers will be able to come to our unit and smell all the base note and top note scents and blend their perfect fragrance for both men and women.

"They will then be able to choose their own bottle, pump, lid, packaging and name their fragrance."

Nicole and Caron now have a two week trial period, from tomorrow until March 11, to demonstrate that they have the customer service, sales and management skills to be the next Retail Factor champion in Luton.

The competition, which is organised in conjunction with The Mall Luton, seeks to uncover the next retail business talent and offers the winner a prize package worth £10,000 that includes; free trading space within The Mall Luton and a £500 cash injection for the purchase of new stock.

Bluebox will be up against tempting treats from fellow retail factor finalist Ribbons and Cakes.

MP hits road with learners

BY SOPHIE SCOTT
sophie.scott@lutononsunday.co.uk

THREE HGV technician apprentices spent the morning passing on what they had learnt to an unexpected guest when Luton North MP, Kelvin Hopkins, paid them a visit.

To mark National Apprenticeship Week, Kelvin spent the day with apprentices Daniel Hobbs and Jason Sylvester, who are both currently on advanced apprenticeships, and Samuel Dawson, who is working towards his intermediate qualifications.

Throughout the morning, the apprentices talked Kelvin through the jobs they do on a day-to-day basis, which include general vehicle maintenance, servicing, repairs and MOTs for council and private vehicles.

This month's National Apprenticeship Week provided an opportunity to highlight the work being done by apprentices and their employers while showing their potential to companies thinking of investing in apprentices. Luton Borough Council's Fleet Transport division has been taking on apprentices for more than 40 years, impressively helping every learner they have ever taken on find employment following their time at the depot.

ON THE JOB: Kelvin Hopkins with apprentices Jason Sylvester, Daniel Hobbs and Samuel Dawson

Cllr Joan Bailey, Portfolio Holder for adult learning, said: "It was great for some of our apprentices to be able to walk Kelvin through what they do and give him a first hand experience of the hard work they do.

"Apprenticeships hold huge value for both the employer and the apprentice, and serve as a great way into the working world for young people."

Top marks for uni's business practice

'INNOVATIVE' teaching and learning at the University of Bedfordshire's Business School have been praised.

A report by university think-tank million+, titled Teaching that Matters, argues that transforming teaching in higher education will be an important part of delivering employability, stimulating economic growth and tackling unemployment in the long-term.

The report highlights how a teaching revolution is already underway in modern universities, including Bedfordshire, delivering employability through a greater degree of professional development and skills training.

It goes on to say modern universities act as engines of social mobility and growth for the knowledge economy.

Teaching that Matters highlights the Business Pods at the University of Bedfordshire as an example of teaching excellence.

The university's Business Pods are more like modern office suites than traditional classrooms, with a variety of office spaces and breakout areas as well as meeting rooms.

University Vice Chancellor Professor Les Ebdon CBE DL said: "Teaching That Matters recognises the difference that good teaching can make to students and to their prospects in life.

"That was a key aim of the Business Pods when they were launched in 2007 and I'm delighted they have been highlighted in this report."

Student numbers using the Business Pods have more than doubled over the past five years, totalling some 2,000 business students.

Travel apprentice scheme to get school leavers on career ladder

LUTON-based holiday giants Thomson and First Choice are offering a new apprenticeship scheme for school leavers.

The two-year programme, based at the Wigmore Lane offices, within the commercial division, offers talented individuals on the job training in travel and leisure trading, product planning and purchasing. Garry Wilson, product and purchasing director at TUI UK & Ireland, said: "Our new commercial apprentice scheme is an exciting addition to our range of award winning schemes for attracting and developing talent.

"We are offering ambitious, talented, school leavers the opportunity of an immediate salary, a development programme spanning real job roles in a range of departments and career prospects previously only available to graduates."

FUNDING GOAL: The LAMP football team

Airport's £50k to keep Trust Fund flying high

LUTON Airport has committed £50,000 to its Community Trust Fund this year.

The fund, established in 2009, was set up to provide support for community initiatives that positively contribute towards the aims and objectives of the airport's Community Engagement Strategy.

This year's fund is open to applications from groups in Luton, Stevenage, Central Bedfordshire, North Hertfordshire, Aylesbury Vale and St Albans district - which includes Harpenden.

The fund is independently administered by Bedfordshire and Luton Community Foundation and grants are awarded by its Grants Panel which undertakes monitoring and evaluation to ensure the grants deliver significant impact in the social, environmental and economic life of the community.

Last year, 43 grants were made to local charities and community organisations and since 2009, £131,000 has been distributed to 101 groups.

Homeless charity LAMP was one of the groups that received funding in the last year.

Karen Rabjohn from the charity said: "LAMP would like to sincerely thank London Luton Airport for supporting their football team.

"A homeless young person often feels isolated and alone, their self esteem and motivation is at rock bottom. This compounded with financial restrictions and cultural differences often mean that many LAMP clients who want to participate in sport, and particularly football, are excluded from doing so.

"The LAMP football team allows these young men to feel included and on an equal level with other young men in society.

"It helps form friendships and social bonds. This grant will directly help many more young homeless men to have a focus and move forward in their lives."

Three women fight against the joys of the 21st century

COMEDY

HORMONAL HOUSEWIVES

Grove Theatre, Dunstable
March 16, 7.30pm

HORMONAL Housewives is an hilarious comedy written by husband and wife team Julie Coombe and John McIsaac and follows the lives of three women as the battle against weight gain, weight loss, mood swings, wine, PMS, men, going to the gym . . . and all the other joys of being a 21st Century girl.

In the 1980s, Liverpool-born Margi Clarke (pictured) was the lead singer of various punk bands, once supporting Adam and The Ants.

After starting as a presenter for Granada TV, she moved into acting with a role in Channel 4 soap Brookside, before finding recognition in 1985 with a role in cult British film Letter To Brezhnev, widely regarded as one of the most important British films of all time which went on to become a huge international hit.

Also starring in Hormonal Housewives is Kay Purcell, who is well known for her role as Gina Conway in the highly successful Tracy Beaker series, Candice Smilie in Waterloo Road and Cynthia Daggert in Emmerdale. She also appeared in Celebrity Fit Club.

Laura Checkley, who is starring in Hormonal Housewives, is one half of the hilarious female double act 'Checkley & Bush' who reached the finals of The UK Funny Women Awards.

Laura runs her own comedy night in Leicester Square, London where it is fast becoming one of the best character comedy nights on the circuit.

Tickets are either £19 or £21 and can be booked online at www.grovetheatre.co.uk or by calling 01582 602080.

EXHIBITION

A HISTORY OF SUNDON PARK IN PHOTOS

Sundon Park Library
March 5-19

LUTONIANS Alan Campbell and Richard King host a local history exhibition of 'Sundon Park Through Time 1930s–1960s'.

The exhibition will include many photographs of Sundon Park, featuring images of the area before most of the shops and houses were built.

There's even a photograph of the Home Guard during the war.

The exhibition also includes memoires of local people and their memories of when they first moved to the area.

Alan and Richard will be in the library on March 7 and March 14 to talk to people about their memories of Sundon Park and surrounding areas, and to share stories and more photos.

Go along and see if you recognise areas of Sundon Park from the 1930s onwards.

For more information about the exhibition, contact Sundon Park Library on 01582 574573 or visit www.lutonlibraries.co.uk

Ho, every one that thirsteth, come ye to the waters, and he that hath no money; come ye, buy and eat; yea, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price. Funnyman Paul's taking his friends on new tour

COMEDY

PAUL MERTON - OUT OF MY HEAD
Grove Theatre, Dunstable
March 30

HAVE I Got News For You regular Paul Merton returns to his stand-up roots for the first time this century with a little help from his friends.

One of the country's funniest and best-loved performers, Paul comes to Dunstable as part of his tour of the UK accompanied by Lee Simpson, Richard Vranch and Suki Webster.

Discover the bizarre workings of Paul Merton's brain, as he muses on the mighty behemoth that is his noggin. Away from the Have I got News For You desk Paul will prove he's got legs.

Paul Merton (pictured) is a regular guest on Radio 4's Just A Minute.

He is also an established face on TV with shows such as the hugely popular Have I Got News For You, Room 101, Paul Merton Looks at Alfred Hitchcock, Paul Merton's Birth of Hollywood and his travel series for Channel Five in India, China, Europe and more recently Paul Merton's Adventures.

Lee Simpson became a member of the Comedy Store Players in 1987 when he ruthlessly exploited Paul's broken leg to inveigle his way into the group.

He is a founder member of Improbable, one of the country's foremost theatre companies.

Richard Vranch is an improv comedian, voiceover person and writer. He is one of Paul Merton's Improv Chums and a Comedy Store Player, and he has embarked on many exotic tours with Steve Frost's Improv Allstars.

Suki Webster is a regular guest of The Comedy Store Players and has toured India, Malaysia and Barbados with Paul Merton And His Improv Chums.

She has also written and performed in several critically acclaimed solo shows at The Edinburgh Festival Fringe and this year.

MUSIC

THAT'LL BE THE DAY
Grove Theatre, Dunstable
March 17, 7.30pm

THAT'LL Be The Day, the nation's favourite rock 'n' roll variety show is back by popular demand with their hit 2012 production at the Grove Theatre.

This hugely entertaining Rock 'N' Roll spectacular features an all new line-up of knock-out hits from the 1950s, 60s and 70s.

Mixed with hilarious, zany comedy routines, the show produces that real feel-good party atmosphere.

That'll Be The Day is the UK's number one rock 'n' roll production, written and directed by founder and on-stage director Trevor Payne.

The show is now in its 26th successful year of touring and has performed at many venues across the UK. Trevor is constantly looking for new ideas to make the show bigger and better each year.

Tickets cost either £19.50 or £22 and can be booked online at www.grovetheatre.co.uk or by calling the box office on 01582 602080.

Roll up, for circus fun

WHAT'S ON

THE CHINESE STATE CIRCUS
Grove Theatre, Dunstable
March 23-25, various show times

FROM the land of legends and warrior Shaolin monks comes the incredible new Chinese State Circus production - the live acrobatic spectacular Yin Yang.

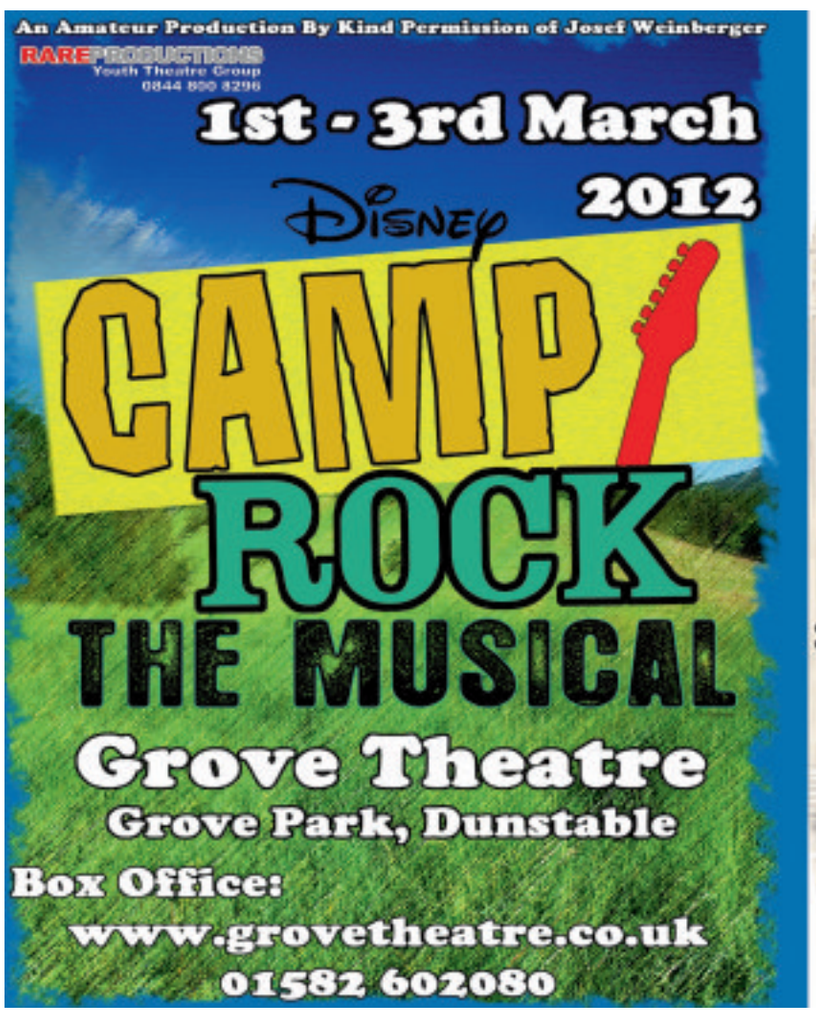

To say the Chinese State Circus is merely a show is to grossly underestimate it; it is the embodiment of a traditional art form which can trace its history back more than 2,000 years.

The presentation lives and breathes with the enthusiasm of its acrobatic artistes whose whole lives centre in the performance.

Witness the unpredictable and exhilarating twists of foot juggling with drums, the famous Chinese poles, the sensational contortionist and the dynamic hoop divers with their amazing somersaults, leaps and jumps which all go towards completing this action-packed programme.

The Chinese State Circus is suitable for an audience of all ages, with evocative sets, soaring musical score and extravagant new costumes that will entertain the entire family.

Tickets start at £16 and can be booked online at www.grovetheatre.co.uk or by calling the box office on 01582 602080.

Proposal to extend the age range of Tithe Farm Community Lower School from 3 - 9 years to 3 - 11 years to create a primary school.

Notice is given in accordance with section 19(1) of the Education and Inspections Act 2006 that Central Bedfordshire Council intends to make a prescribed alteration to Tithe Farm Community Lower School, Tithe Farm Road, Houghton Regis, Bedfordshire LU5 5JB from 1 September 2013.

The proposal is to change the age range of Tithe Farm Community Lower School by extending it from a 3 - 9 years lower school to a 3 - 11 years primary school.

This is to be implemented in two stages:

September 2013 - year 4 children will be retained at the school and become a new year 5.

September 2014 - Year 5 children will be retained at the school and become a new year 6.

The current capacity of the school is 300 in the main school plus provision for 78 part-time nursery places. Following implementation the proposed capacity will be 420 places in the main school plus provision for 78 part-time nursery places.

The current admission number for the main school is 60 for each year group. The proposed admission number will remain the same. Explanatory notes

It is proposed that extending the age range of Tithe Farm Community Lower School from 3 - 9 years to 3 - 11 years to create a primary school will provide improved standards in years 5 and 6 and therefore at the end of Key Stage 2. National data shows that changing school may impact negatively on pupils' progress and may result in a lack of curriculum understanding, continuity, and assessment agreement. This proposal will remove the transition at the end of year 4.

The school can accommodate the additional year groups until July 2015 without the need for additional accommodation. From September 2015 the school proposes to change the use of the classroom currently used by the Neighbourhood Centre. From 2016 the school will need two further classrooms which are proposed to be provided by the school.

Proposal to extend the age range of Hawthorn Park Community Lower School from 3 - 9 years to 3 - 11 years to create a primary school.

Notice is given in accordance with section 19(1) of the Education and Inspections Act 2006 that Central Bedfordshire Council intends to make a prescribed alteration to Hawthorn Park Community Lower School, Parkside Drive, Houghton Regis, Bedfordshire LU5 5QN from 1 September 2013.

The proposal is to change the age range of Hawthorn Park Community Lower School by extending it from a 3 - 9 years lower school to a 3 - 11 years primary school.

This is to be implemented in two stages:

September 2013 - year 4 children will be retained at the school and become a new year 5. September 2014 - year 5 children will be retained at the school and become a new year 6.

The current capacity of the school is 300 places in the main school plus provision for 79 part-time nursery places. Following implementation the proposed capacity will be 420 places in the main school plus provision for 79 part-time nursery places.

The current admission number for the main school is 60 for each year group. The proposed admission number will remain the same. Total capacity for September 2013 is expected to be 360 in the main school with 79 part time nursery places. Total capacity for 2014 is expected to be 420 in the main school with 79 part time nursery places.

Proposal to extend the age range of Thornhill Community Lower School from 3 - 9 years to 3 - 11 years to create a primary school.

Notice is given in accordance with section 19(1) of the Education and Inspections Act 2006 that Central Bedfordshire Council intends to make a prescribed alteration to Thornhill Community Lower School, Grove Road, Houghton Regis, Bedfordshire LU5 5PE from 1 September 2013.

The proposal is to change the age range of Thornhill Community Lower School by extending it from a 3 - 9 years lower school to a 3 - 11 years primary school.

National data shows that changing school may impact negatively on pupils' progress and may result in a lack of curriculum understanding, continuity, and assessment agreement. This proposal will remove the transition at the end of year 4.

The school can accommodate the additional year groups by reverting one classroom currently used as a parents' room and 'after school club' for an interim period. In the longer term, when funds become available, the school would consider a permanent extension to the school to replace these facilities.

Volvo S60 and V60 get five star safety ratings in Europe and the United States

Volvo Car Corporation's safety leadership is once again confirmed by full star results on both sides of the Atlantic.

The Volvo V60 received five stars and is named best car in the Large Family category in the 2011 Euro-NCAP rating.

In the United States, the Volvo S60 achieved an overall five star NHTSA crash test rating.

"It is very good news that our aim to offer customers the safest cars on the market is confirmed by several independent evaluations on different continents. However, this is just part of the complete picture of a car model's real life safety performance and the effort we dedicate to offering customers world-leading safety," says Thomas Broberg, Senior Safety Advisor at Volvo Car Corporation.

In addition to being the top achiever in the Euro-NCAP Large Car Family category, the Volvo V60 was also rewarded for the low-speed collision avoidance system City Safety.

Keane wonder strike seals place in semis

BY LAUREN ARCHELL
lauren.archell@lutononsunday.com

THE Hatters took one step closer to a trip to Wembley after a convincing win over Gateshead in the FA Trophy.

A scissor-kick from John Paul Kissock and a Keith Keane 30-yard strike direct from a free-kick gave Luton the two goals that secured their place in the semi-finals of the competition.

Speaking after the game, manager Gary Brabin said: "I'm delighted with the performance, delighted with the result, and delighted we're through to the semis.

"We played some really good stuff and I think we deserved the win."

The gaffer also sung the praises of the goalscorers.

He said: "Kissock is certainly a player capable of scoring goals, and today he's grabbed an opportunity with both hands and scored a cracking goal.

"The performance from Keane was him at his best and he drove us on from midfield."

Desperate to forget the disappointment of the 1-0 midweek league defeat at Barrow, Luton were quick out of the blocks and a long-range strike from Robbie Willmott plus a low shot from Greg Taylor gave them their first glimpses of goalmouth action.

The early pressure led to the Hatters taking the lead in the eighth minute.

After build-up play with Willmott, Alex Lawless was able to cross into the box for a waiting Kissock to acrobatically slam home.

The lead could have been doubled minutes later by Danny Crow when after receiving a pinpoint cross from Willmott, the striker rattled the goalpost.

Despite Luton holding the majority of the possession, the visitors came dangerously close to equalising on the break.

Goalkeeper Mark Tyler was forced to make an impressive reaction save after a right wing cross from Craig Baxter enabled Mickey Cummins to unleash a powerful goalwards strike.

Apart from that it was one-way traffic and the Hatters looked dangerous every time they pressed forward, while Gateshead seemed powerless to prevent them.

After getting on to the end of a left wing cross from Jake Howells, Crow had a second chance to extend the lead, but visiting goalkeeper Tim Deasy did well to stop his close range effort from finding the back of the net, punching the ball away into the six-yard box, where a waiting Willmott was unable to do anything with the rebound.

On the stroke of half time a strong strike from Taylor, who impressed with his forward runs throughout the afternoon, was turned around the post.

The game continued in a similar fashion after the restart, with Luton taking every opportunity to cause problems for the visitors.

The goal that eventually put the Hatters two up had taken its time coming but was well worth the wait.

Keane unleashed a stunning 30-yard free-kick which fooled keeper Deasy and smashed into the back of the net.

Lifted by the goal, Town piled forward again and Kissock managed to find space in the box and hit a firm shot that sailed just past the post. Luton now find themselves in the draw for the semi-final of the Trophy alongside York City, Newport County and Wealdstone FC.

When asked who he'd like to meet in the next round, Brabin said: "I couldn't say.

"I'm looking forward to the draw, but I'm more looking forward to getting back with the lads and preparing for the next match."

Luton will find out there last-four opponents tomorrow when the ties are decided.

Record-breaker Burford gives World hopes a lift

POWERLIFTING

CHRIS Burford broke world and national records to win the British Drug-Free Single Lift Master One squat title and set a new national best to also clinch top honours in the deadlift.

He was one of three powerlifters from Burn Fitness in Dunstable that qualified for the European and World Championships in France and Switzerland respectively with their performances at the national championships in Dudley, West Midlands last weekend.

Gym-mate Gary Dada clinched the (125kg) Master One unequipped bench press title, setting a new national record of 210kg in the process, while Johnny Sachon finished second in the 75kg unequipped deadlift with a 180kg lift in his first national final after qualifying last year at the All England Championships.

Burford also placed second in the bench press with a lift of 200kg.

He said: "To break the records was an amazing feeling. I'd planned to do it but missed out twice, so it was third time lucky.

"I'm confident about the European and World Championships and I'll give them my best shot."

DUNSTABLIANS displayed their superiority yesterday to complete the double over Long Bucky at Bedford Road.

Gavin Denning's unconverted try got the ball rolling before Danny Mills kicked and then went over for a converted try to send the Dees in front at the break.

Further tries in the second half from Kevin Boland, Scott Warren and Stewart Calder, along with Murphy's conversions, reinforced the home side's dominance as they thrashed their Northampton rivals.

Elsewhere in the division, STOCKWOOD PARK drew 24-24 at home to Northampton Old Scouts, while in National Three London & South East LUTON went down 34-8 at Westcliff.

Roache leads rout as Town hit the top on goal difference

HERTFORD TOWN 0
DUNSTABLE TOWN 5

DUNSTABLE Town climbed to the top on goal difference over Creasey Park rivals AFC Dunstable as Lee Roache and Jonathan Cooper bagged a brace each.

After 13 minutes the pair had both netted once, while Peter Holmes hit the bar and George Brinkman had one disallowed for offside.

Roache doubled up from a corner and hit the woodwork later on after Nathan Frater had netted and had another chalked off.

Town could even afford to play the final 10 minutes with ten men after Jack Nelly went off injured.

AFC DUNSTABLE 3
HILLINGDON BOROUGH 1

AFC defeated Hilllingdon to go joint top on points with Dunstable Town as the title race nears its climax.

Richard Harker scored the only goal of the first half when he converted a Tony Bennett cross to put the hosts ahead.

AFC then pushed after the break and secured the points with BJ Christie's strike and Gareth Harnaman's penalty.

However, a drop in Dunstable's concentration levels late on allowed Hillingdon to grab a consolation and take some shine off a result that will give AFC's title ambitions a huge lift.

BARTON ROVERS 4
CHALFONT ST PETERS 0

THREE second half strikes saw Barton Rovers consolidate their mid-table position.

Dave Parkinson gave the hosts the lead in the 12th minute, heading in from close range, but the two sides cancelled each other out for the remainder of the half.

Rovers rallied after the break as Bobby Dance stroked home a penalty on the hour mark to double their lead.

Russell Bull finished off a sublime solo effort for 3-0 before the points were confirmed with 15 minutes remaining, Tommy Hull firing in from distance.

SOUTH MIDLANDS LEAGUE DIVISION ONE

LONDON LIONS 3
CRAWLEY GREEN 2

GOALS from Lee Hayward and Jamie Warne were not enough to prevent Crawley from falling to their tenth defeat of the season.

A point separated both sides before kick-off and the game saw its first goal on 11 minutes when Hayward headed in.

Craig Ellis then equalised for the hosts with a cracking strike from outside the box before Daniel Stanton's cruel own-goal gifted Lions a half time lead.

However, Crawley improved after the interval and levelled the score through Warne's strike.

But Ellis popped up again, scoring a sublime free-kick to win the game and send the visitors home empty-handed.

SOUTH MIDLANDS LEAGUE DIVISION TWO

THE 61FC lost 2-1 in their top-of-the-table encounter with Aston Clinton.

After just two minutes, they got off to the ideal start as Oliver Gowndry put them ahead by converting a cross.

However, the hosts then fell apart and conceded an equaliser on the half-hour mark and lost to a 47th minute penalty.

CADDINGTON were unable to test Winslow United's goalkeeper in a 1-0 loss. They conceded via a sloppy free-kick and couldn't get back into the game.

TOTTERNHOE also disappointed, having no chances as Risborough Rangers thrashed them 3-0.

Brabin will play game of patience in quest to fill Pilkington's boots

BY JAMES CUNLIFFE
james.cunliffe@lutononsunday.com

LUTON are in the market for a back-up goalkeeper after Kevin Pilkington hung up his gloves to take a coaching role at Notts County this week.

Mark Tyler is now the clear first choice but the Hatters' 19-year-old stopper Lewis Kidd (pictured right) has been bumped up the pecking order and though Gary Brabin admits he'd have "no qualms about putting him in", the manager won't rule out drafting in some experience as cover.

He said: "We're not going to rush out and get the first goalie that becomes available as we have got faith in Lewis Kidd.

"But at the same time, we can't make light of the situation and if the opportunity came up to get a keeper who can come in and lighten the load a little bit then we would certainly look at that option."

Though Kidd is yet to play for the first team this season, Brabin was quick to praise the talents of the teen.

"He's definitely ready for first team football," the manager explained, adding: "There's a lot of factors though, the size of the crowd, a lot of aspects can have nervous affects on you.

"We know with Adam Watkins. He was very nervous in his first few games, but when someone in the middle of the park makes a few mistakes, it's not as highlighted as it's a bit more different with it being a specialist position in goal.

"We've got to take all those factors into it. When you look at how far he has come in training, learning with Mark Tyler, Kevin Pilkington and Dmitri [Kharine]. He's come on leaps and bounds.

"We're certainly excited about the future for Lewis Kidd, and we would have no qualms about putting him in.

"I think the fact that Lewis was part of our squad against Barrow is another forward step in his career. As it stands he is our number two and that will certainly give him a lift.

"He's got stronger, more confident and developed into a really fine young goalkeeper. But we have to look at the bigger picture."

Deji dreams of Euro shot

ATHLETICS

SPRINTER Deji Tobais has targeted at least a place at the European Championships in Helsinki later this year but hasn't ruled out making the Olympics.

The 20-year-old from Luton, who has represented Great Britain at junior and Under-23 level, began his 2012 season yesterday in the 60 metres at the British Universities & Colleges Sport (BUCS) Indoor Athletics Championships in Sheffield.

The Windsor, Slough, Eton & Hounslow AC athlete, who has a 60m career best of 6.75secs, is now hoping to compete in Finland in June in one of the big precursors to the London 2012 Games a month later.

"My overall aims are to stay injury free, develop my 100m and 200m and make my 400m debut," said Tobais.

"Making it to the European Championships [in Helsinki, Finland] would top off my season. You never know, if my form is good I could make the Olympics, but there's no extra pressure for me to do that.

"It's going to be hard with everyone upping their game trying to make the Olympics."
